PREFACE

This bibliography is the third in a series planned to identify and provide access to the many rare and valuable publications in the collection of the National Agricultural Library. Most of the titles listed were published prior to 1800 (European imprints) and 1830 (American imprints), although selected works published at later dates have also been included.

The National Agricultural Library call number and the Library of Congress printed card number (when available) have been included in the citation.

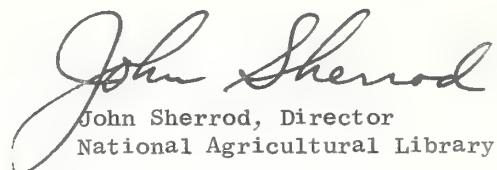

Previously published in this series:
